Listening Feedback

Tuesday 14 November, 7.30 – 9.15pm,
Trinity Catholic High School, Mornington
Rd, Woodford Green IG8 0TP.

Over the summer Redbridge Citizens committed to a listening campaign throughout the member organisations. This meeting will enable organisations to report back on the listening done and vote on the 3 key themes that will form the basis of our People's Agenda for the local elections next year. If you took part in the house meetings you might like to come along and take part in the next step.

TELCO (East London Citizens) AGM & Assembly with Deputy Mayor for Housing

Wednesday 15 November from 6.30 - 8.30pm at Oasis, 75 Westminster Bridge Rd, London SE1 7HS.

Following the AGM from 6.30 – 7.30pm, we will join South, West, and North London Citizens to hold an Assembly until 8.30pm with the London Deputy Mayor for Housing, James Murray, to celebrate what we've won since the Mayoral Assembly at the Copper Box last year, negotiate for more on the issues still outstanding such as CLTs on the Olympic Park, and to make our voices heard on the new draft London Plan.

Redbridge Citizens Housing Team will be presented with the award for the 'Win of the Year' at this event, for our work on winning the Council Leader's commitment to 250 CLTs.

It would be great to have a good number of people from St Margaret's at both of these meetings.

TRAIIDCRAFT

Thanks to everyone who came to support and help at the afternoon tea. Traidcraft, who have written to say:

Thank you very much from all of us here at Traidcraft for your generous gift of £150.00 kindly generated from holding an afternoon tea event.

Support like yours enables us to equip people across the world's poorest communities with the skills they need to earn their way out of poverty.

Thanks to you lives have been changed for the better. For people like Jackline and her family, in Northern Kenya, the future looks brighter. Through training in protecting her crops from the harsh droughts caused by climate change, Jackline was able to make enough income from her farm to pay her children's school fees. She told us "My dream now is to maintain my kids in school. I want them to have a better education. They are doing really well at school, they are really happy."

I will have a stall at the Pop Up market on 11 November and at St Andrews Church on 2 December, it would be great to see some of you at either of these events. Please take a catalogue and if you would like to order anything please let me know, or speak to me for more information. Thanks. Sharon 07555 144255

Collect

God of holiness,
your glory is proclaimed in every age:
as we rejoice in the faith of your saints,
inspire us to follow their example
with boldness and joy;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

First Reading: Revelation 7: 9-17

After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice, saying 'Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!' And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshipped God, singing, 'Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honour and power and might be to our God for ever and ever! Amen.' Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, 'Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?' I said to him, 'Sir, you are the one that knows.' Then he said to me, 'These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb. For this reason they are before the throne of God, and worship him day and night within his temple, and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them. They will hunger no more, and thirst no more; the sun will not strike them, nor any scorching heat; for the Lamb at the centre of the throne will be their shepherd, and he will guide them to springs of the water of life, and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes.'

Psalm 24

R: Such are the ones who seek your face, O Lord

The Lord's is the earth and its fullness, the world and all its peoples.
It is he who set it on the seas;
on the waters he made it firm. R

Who shall climb the mountain of the Lord?
Who shall stand in his holy place?
Those with clean hands and pure heart,
who desire not worthless things. R

They shall receive blessings from the Lord and reward from the God who saves them.
Such are the ones who seek him,
seek the face of the God of Jacob. R

Second Reading: I John 3: 1-3

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

Gospel acclamation

Alleluia.....

Come to me, all you who labour and are over-burdened,
and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

Alleluia.....

Gospel: St Matthew 5: 1-12

Prayer over the Gifts

God, our host,
at whose table we are made one,
grant that like all your saints
we may run our earthly course with faith and have eternal communion with them in your kingdom.
We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

God, the source of all holiness and giver of all good things:
may we who have shared at this table
as strangers and pilgrims here on earth be welcomed with all your saints to the heavenly feast on the day of your kingdom;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
