Last Sunday we bid goodbye to Glen Thomas as he left us to begin his theological training at St Stephen's House, Oxford. There is a display of photos in the Lady Chapel.

TRAIDCRAFT

You have probably heard the sad news about Traidcraft so I thought I would write to try to let you know what I understand is happening. Traidcraft is having a 30 day consultation following large trading losses. They will continue to work through the various strategic options and opportunities that exist for them during this time. If closure is considered the only option, Traidcraft will cease trading in December.

The success of this autumn 2018 season will have a big impact on the options available to Traidcraft. There is a great selection of high quality goods and crafts in the catalogues - Christmas presents for all. Please have a look and order via me (with discount) or online.

Traidcraft Exchange is the sister charity and a separate organisation (this is where I send donations) and will not be affected directly.

I will keep you updated and hope for your support. Thanks.

Collect

Faithful Lord,
whose steadfast love never ceases
and whose mercies never come to an end:
grant us the grace to trust you
and to receive the gifts of your love,
new every morning,
in Jesus Christ our Lord
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.
Amen.

First Reading: Genesis 2: 18-24

The LORD God said, 'It is not good that the man should be alone; I will make him a helper as his partner.' So out of the ground the LORD God formed every animal of the field and every bird of the air, and brought them to the man to see what he would call them; and whatever the man called every living creature, that was its name. The man gave names to all cattle, and to the birds of the air, and to every animal of the field; but for the man there was not found a helper as his partner. So the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall upon the man, and he slept; then he took one of his ribs and closed up its place with flesh. And the rib that the LORD God had taken from the man he made into a woman and brought her to the man. Then the man said, 'This at last is bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; this one shall be called Woman, for out of Man this one was taken.' Therefore a man leaves his father and his mother and clings to his wife, and they become one flesh.

Psalm 128

R: May the Lord bless us all the days of our life.

O blessed are those who fear the Lord
and walk in his ways!
By the labour of your hands you shall eat.
You will be happy and prosper. R

Your wife like a fruitful vine
in the heart of your house;
your children like shoots of the olive,
around your table. R

Indeed thus shall be blessed those who fear the Lord.
May the Lord bless you from Zion
in a happy Jerusalem. R

Second Reading: Hebrews 1: 1-4; 2: 5-12

Long ago God spoke to our ancestors in many and various ways by the prophets, but in these last days he has spoken to us by a Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom he also created the worlds. He is the reflection of God's glory and the exact imprint of God's very being, and he sustains all things by his powerful word. When he had made purification for sins, he sat down at the right hand of the Majesty on high, having become as much superior to angels as the name he has inherited is more excellent than theirs. Now God did not subject the coming world, about which we are speaking, to angels. But someone has testified somewhere, 'What are human beings that you are mindful of them, or mortals, that you care for them? You have made them for a little while lower than the angels; you have crowned them with glory and honour, subjecting all things under their feet.' Now in subjecting all things to them, God left nothing outside their control. As it is, we do not yet see everything in subjection to them, but we do see Jesus, who for a little while was made lower than the angels, now crowned with glory and honour because of the suffering of death, so that by the grace of God he might taste death for everyone. It was fitting that God, for whom and through whom all things exist, in bringing many children to glory, should make the pioneer of their salvation perfect through sufferings. For the one who sanctifies and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason Jesus is not ashamed to call them brothers and sisters, saying, 'I will proclaim your name to my brothers and sisters, in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.'

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia .....
Your word is truth, O Lord,
consecrate us in the truth.
Alleluia .....

Gospel: St Mark 10: 2-16

Prayer over the Gifts

Grant to us, Lord God,
that we, following the command of Christ,
may find at this table
the fullness of your redeeming work.
We ask this through Christ our Lord.
Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

Holy and blessed God,
you have fed us with the body and blood of your Son
and filled us with your Holy Spirit:
may we honour you,
not only with our lips
but in lives dedicated to the service
of Jesus Christ our Lord.
Amen.
